Description

Our story began in 1949 with Carlo Abarth, a passionate designer, test driver and racer who broke record after record, making Abarth synonymous with high performance. Born out of this rich history comes the Abarth 595. Built to translate its racing pedigree for the rules of the road but secretly thriving on adrenaline and excitement and saving its true character for the track! This vehicle is engaging, nimble and fun to drive. Providing you with a lavish interior feel but more importantly incredible handling that puts a smile on your face each and every time you turn the key. Our example comes complete with a full Vospers service history and only has one owner from new. Contact us today for more information.
